

BBC College of Journalism - Hong Kong Baptist University Joint Conference

INDEPENDENT JOURNALISM : LANGUAGE & IMPARTIALITY

Concerned about impartiality in your news language?

Want to know more about the guiding principles of BBC news?

Interested in learning about news production in the age of social media?

Join us at the BBC College of Journalism – Hong Kong Baptist University Joint Conference to learn more about journalism and language use in news output in a multicultural/multilingual/multiplatform environment.

flickr

g+

f

You
Tube

in

Speakers:

Jonathan Baker, Head of BBC Newsgathering, BBC

Bruce Lui, Visiting Senior Lecturer, HKBU

Najiba Kasraee, Editor, BBC College of Journalism, International websites

Bryan Curtis, Head of English Programmes, RTHK

Susan Fearn, Journalism and Production Senior Training Manager, BBC

Raymond Li, Visiting Lecturer, HKBU

Vikas Pandey, Senior BBC Monitoring Journalist in Delhi

Date: 15-16 Nov 2013 (Fri-Sat)

Time: Daily, starting 10:30 am

This is an open event.

All are welcome.

Venue: Dr. Hari Harilela Lecture Theatre (WLB103)

The Wing Lung Bank Building for Business Studies

Shaw Campus, Hong Kong Baptist University

Kowloon Tong, Kowloon, Hong Kong

*Refreshments will be available -- drinks, snacks and light lunch