

Arjun Chatterjee is an award-winning journalist and television news presenter who has worked with several media networks in India and abroad, some of which are Star News Network, India Today Group and British Broadcasting Corporation. He is the recipient of two prestigious international awards, the Chevening Scholarship (the UK government's international scholarships programme) and the HKPFS (Hong Kong PhD Fellowship Scheme) award. He is also the recipient of the BBC-Chevening Professional Placement award.

Arjun is a PhD scholar in the Department of Journalism, at Hong Kong Baptist University. Arjun is a journalist-turned-interdisciplinary academic with 18 years of experience in broadcast and digital media and research across Asia and Europe. Arjun has worked with the Observer Research Foundation (ORF is a leading think tank in India) and the Kosovar Stability Initiative (IKS is a leading think tank in Prishtina, Kosovo), apart from working with WWF-India (World Wide Fund for Nature Inc. is an international non-governmental organisation). Arjun worked with the BBC in London after winning the BBC-Chevening Professional Placement award in 2017. During his short stint at the BBC in London, Arjun was the Producer of BBC's flagship talk show, HARDtalk. Arjun has worked as a Consultant for BBC World Service and he wrote for BBC Monitoring (South Asia). Apart from his role with the BBC, he also taught postgraduate students of journalism at the University of Calcutta in India and undergraduate students at King Faisal University in Saudi Arabia.
